Breaking Gravity

Breaking Gravity by Autumn Grey is book two of the Fall Back series and is focused on the love life & story of Elon Blake who we saw in Fall Back Skyward (Book One). And while this story may not be as emotionally challenging and angsty as the first book, that in no way diminishes the effect and emotional 5 STARS

Breaking Gravity (Fall Back, #2) by Autumn Grey

Breaking Gravity offers a (mostly) believable scenario for how that future--a future that pretty much every scifi writer has predicted--came to be. A serendipitous discovery, a hoverboard, greedy suits,

Breaking Gravity is, in short, about what happens socially and economically if somebody discovers anti-gravity. The physics is shit! And I don't mean the actual hand-waving that permits and anti-gravity. I wish I could remember who defined a fantasy as a story in which we had to accept precisely one impossible thing.

Breaking Gravity was deeply moving and quite different from other student/teacher romances. There were honestly times when I forgot Elon and Nate had a student/teacher relationship at all because they seemed on a completely level playing field outside of the classroom, if anything Elon often had the upper hand in matters of the heart.
