As Mike Dooley says in his book, Manifesting Change: It Couldn't Be Easier: "A ll we have to do is define whatever it is we want all the changes we wish to experience in terms of the end result. Define them as if you were already there (which is what visualization is all about), and then simply begin moving in the general direction of your dreams, knocking on doors and turning over stones."

Welcome to the Queendom | The Queen of Manifesting
How do we manifest? To me, it's interesting that we even ask the question, because, well, we've been manifesting our entire life. It's just that like most people, we've been manifesting unconsciously and by default, and when we first discovered that we could actually manifest consciously, we felt that we needed to know HOW it's done.
