Script Burn This Lanford Wilson

Burn this is a play by Lanford Wilson. I have never read any play by this writer before, but I fell in love with this one. I loved the characters of Anna and Pale, they are flawed people but find a connection in each other. Anna is a dancer and Pale manages a restaurant. He is the brother of her friend Robby who does along with his partner Dom.

Lanford Wilson's answer in "Burn This" now running at the Huntington Theatre is soap opera. This script, produced in 1987 starring John Malkovich was updated for its limited 2002 run at Signature. It seems somewhat adrift in the mythical world of the New York creative scene and just a bit dated.

Aisle Say (Boston): BURN THIS

Lanford Wilson (April 13, 1937 – March 24, 2011) was an American playwright. His work, as described by The New York Times, was "earthy, realist, greatly admired [and] widely performed." Wilson helped to advance the Off-Off-Broadway theater movement with his earliest plays, which were first produced at the Caffe Cino beginning in 1964. He was one of the first playwrights to move from Off-Off ...

The original production of Lanford Wilson's Burn This offered a play that was as stunning as the performance, delivered by John Malkovitch and Joan Allen, who won the Tony Award for Best Actress. If subsequent productions have revealed weaknesses in Wilson's conception, the current revival at Broadway's Hudson Theatre is no exception.
